

The קדיש contains ten unique words praising God -- the first 2 words of the first paragraph, and the first 8 words of the second paragraph. This adds up to 10, the number of the Ten Commandments.

Look at the קדיש on page 3 or page 6 of your prayer module. Write these ten words of praise in Hebrew on the blank tablets below. Then follow the instructions at the bottom of the page.

1. _____ 6. _____

2. _____ 7. _____

3. _____ 8. _____

4. _____ 9. _____

5. _____ 10. _____

- ◆ One of these words is built on the root for “holy.” Circle this word.
- ◆ One of these words is built on the root for “bless.” Underline it.
- ◆ One of these words comes from the same root as “halleluyah” (praise God). Draw a square around this word.
- ◆ Do you know the Hebrew word for “big?” Try to find the word of praise that comes from the same root. Draw a triangle around it.
- ◆ One of these words is related to the word for “going up” (hint - we use another related word for being called “up” to the Torah,” and for moving “up” to Israel. Double-underline this word, if you can find it.
