

Take the path from the synagogue to your home on Friday night.
 Work with a partner. Go from Hebrew word to Hebrew word, reading and translating into English. Your partner should follow along on page 4 of the Kiddush module, checking your work as you go. He or she should say, "Stay on the path," if you make a mistake.

Two mistakes in a row, then switch.

Keep trying until you both can go the whole way.

